ПРОФИЛЬ

I am a Front-end developer with an education in web development. I have experience with HTML5, CSS, and JavaScript to create modern and intuitive interfaces. I actively use React to develop dynamic applications. My knowledge of Git and GitHub allows me to effectively manage versions and collaborate within a team. I am fluent in English and Russian, which enables me to work in an international environment. I strive to grow in the field of front-end development, constantly improving my skills and implementing innovative solutions.
